

SALCET – mandate and policy document – reviewed 29.01.2021

Relief of poverty, sickness, and distress and the preservation of good health of children and their relatives who are suffering as a result of earthquakes or any other natural disaster in El Salvador and other vulnerable countries. Medical and humanitarian relief are offered including to chronic disasters through whatever cause resulting in poverty with appropriate follow up and monitoring.